

Call for paper for the proposed book “Indian Arbitration Law: Problems, Perspectives & Roadmap for the Future”

Papers are invited from all over India for the proposed book entitled hereinabove and for that purpose please note the following:

1. The main objective of the current endeavour is to be able to compile a book on Indian Arbitration Law. The book will comprise of original and unpublished articles (not submitted for publishing in any place) mainly submitted by students, faculty members, reputed practitioners and other scholars. The composition of the editorial board for the book is provided hereinunder:

Senior Editors:

1. Hon’ble Prof. (Dr.) M.P Singh
2. Hon’ble Justice Mrs. Ruma Pal
3. Hon’ble Justice Mr. Pinaki Ghosh
4. Mr. Nitai Roy Chowdhury, Former Law Minister, Peoples Republic of Bangladesh.

Managing Editor:

1. Prof. Anirban Chakroborty

Associate Editor:

1. Mr. Tushar Kumar Biswas
2. Mr. Faizal Fashi

Student Editors:

1. Mr. Uddyam Mukherjee
2. Mr. Shouank Chatterjee

Please note that any decision taken by the Editorial Board will be final. The Editorial Board reserves the right to accept or reject any contribution it deems necessary, and does not have any obligation of notifying the reasons for the same. A decision taken by the Editorial Board will be deemed to be final and binding on any person or organisation involved in anything related to this book as mentioned above.

2. Submissions would have to be between a minimum of 5000 and a maximum of 7500 words (inclusive of footnotes). The NUJS Law Review Citation and Style Standard will have to be followed which is available at www.nujs.edu

3. The last date for submission is May 30, 2011 and all contribution should be directed at arbitration.nujs@gmail.com

Regards,

The Editorial Board