

NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW WORKSHOP 2012

AT NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES, KOLKATA

ON MARCH 10 – 11, 2012

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Environmental Workshop has been envisaged with the objective of encouraging environmental scholarship among law students and to generate interest and involvement in emerging issues and topics in environmental law. In order to achieve this objective, the workshop has been kept open to papers covering a wide area of environmental issues, and shall provide a platform to various students to make paper presentation on any topic as long it has environmental relevance, including issues of contemporary relevance like climate change, biodiversity and the conflict between development and environment. The focus of the paper should be to provide solutions, legal or otherwise, to environmental issues.

Participants shall be expected to submit an abstract of not more than 500 words initially on the basis of which 15 papers shall be selected for presentation in the workshop. The last date for the submission of abstracts is 3rd February, 2012. The authors of the selected abstracts will be intimated on 8th February, 2012. The final paper must be between 3500-6000 words. The last date of submission of the final paper is 9th of March, 2012.

Submission Guidelines

- All submissions should be sent to natcom.nujs@gmail.com
- Authorship to the maximum of two is allowed.

- All submissions shall be in MS Word format typed in Times New Roman in 12 font size with line spacing of 1.5.
- All submissions shall contain a covering letter including names, contact number, email id and designation of the author(s).

Publication

From the pool of papers received, three best entries shall be selected, which shall be entitled for publication in the Journal of Indian Law and Society (JILS), a biannual peer reviewed journal published by the Student Juridical Association of WBNUJS.
