FOREWORD BY THE VICE CHANCELLOR

I am glad to forward the Annual Report of The West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences for the year 2018-2019 though I joined as Vice Chancellor on 3rd July 2019. Due to cogent reason the Annual Report for the year 2018-2019 could not be placed earlier. However, the General Council Meeting was scheduled on 05 April 2020 but cancelled due to lockdown declared in view of COVID-19'. During the year 2018-2019 there were three endowment lectures were held, such as-1. 12th K.C. Basu Endowment Lecture by Prof. Prabhat Patnaik, held on 16th March 2019.2. 6th Sri M.K. Nambyar Endowment Lecture by Hon'ble Justice D.Y. Chandrachud held on 2nd March 2019.3. 12th D.D. Basu Endowment Lecture by Hon'ble Justice Jasti Chelameshwar held on 23rd February 2019. We have published our Journals, namely NUJS Law Review, Journal of Indian Law and Society and online journal namely International Journal of Law and Policy Review and NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies. Our Faculty members had published some articles and research papers in good journals. The student body namely SJA conducted their regular Informal Discussion, Weekly Lectures, and Seminar lectures besides their annual sports and cultural programme. The W.B. National University of Juridical Sciences (NUJS) Kolkata recorded the highest number of placements across all National Law Universities (NLUs) in the country for its graduating Batch of 2018. A total number of 84 students (graduating batch of 113 students) were placed in the recruitment process, either by the Campus Recruitment Committee ("CRC") or through offers outside the college recruitment process. This performance by the students of the Batch of 2018 is a reflection of the continued commitment to excellence which NUJS has strived to maintain over the years.

II. OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

Coordinator, Centre for Child Rights, WBNUJS.

The Centre had however become non-functional on account of the refusal of the Acting Vice-Chancellor (Mr. Amit Talukdar) to renew the MoU with UNICEF or to clear any of the bills relating to the Centre. As a result of this funding had ceased and all the activities of the Centre came to a complete halt. The only activity undertaken was to periodically attempt to convince Mr. Talukdar to clear the bills, submit the pending utilization certificates and renew the relationship with UNICEF— all of which he was unwilling to do.

II. PUBLICATIONS, RESEARCH & EXTENSION

Most of the research and extension activities that I was pursuing was through the Centre for Child Rights. However, as explained in the paragraph above, all of that had come to a standstill. Thus, activities worth about Rs. 90 Lakhs had come to a standstill. Further, the non-renewal of the MoU with UNICEF caused planned activities worth about 1 crore not to take off at all. Most of the last year was spent on convincing the various partners and funders that this was only a transitory phase and that the university would fall back on track. There are no research/ extension activities to show as the University had effectively thwarted all such activities those were planned.

Extra-curricular Activities

Student Welfare Activities by SJA:

The Student Juridical Association (SJA) is the organization of students to promote co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Certain co-curricular programmes are required activities for all students for which academic credits are assigned. Non-participation will entail negative marking and therefore students are advised in their own interest to make the best use of facilities offered. The nature and variety of co-curricular programmes depend on the interest and initiation of students for which Faculty Advisors are assigned in appropriate cases.

At NUJS, students form an integral part of the day to day running of the University. For this purpose, various societies have been created for the organization of events and managing of students' activities.

The Cultural Committee (2018-19)

The Cultural Committee had an eventful year, with a number of age-old events being held along with some fresh, new ones. These are the highlights of our work in the past year:

1. University Team Auditions- The Auditions last year saw extensive participation from across the batches and the judging was done by our very own in-house talents. The Music and Dance Teams had members from every batch.
2. Theatre Production- NUJS Krishna had the best of acting talents at display with two productions in the first semester: Stop Kiss (English) made our hearts melt with a young cast showing a beautiful love story set in the busy modern world; Gunao Ka Devta (Hindi) was another thought-provoking play starring some veteran actors from the fifth year batch who have left us with lots to cherish.
3. Independence Day celebrations – 15th day of August 2018 was eventful for everyone as included flag-hoisting, patriotic dance, inter-batch patriotic song rendition poetry, followed by screening of Rang de Basanti in the auditorium that night. The The Hero Series – During the week preceding Independence Day, we shared with GB via email, some hardly-known stories of sacrifices by our soldiers on borders.
4. Maharashtra Dinner – In association with the Mess Committee, Maharashtra dinner was organised to give noojies the opportunity to devour Maharashtrian delicacies midst vibrant Ganeshotsav. This was followed by screening of ‘Harishchandrachi Factory’ in the auditorium.
5. Dandiya Night – With the support of Gujjcom, this year’s Dandiya night followed NUJS tradition, with a garbha and a dandiya performance, followed by a (more than eventful) DJ party outside the boys hostel.
6. Outlawed – Even though this year’s Outlawed lasted one and half days, the Cultural Committee organised quite a few events namely - Campus Idol, Footloose, Spotlight and Street Funk (which just had its third edition and is now on the map of the Who’s Who of the Dancing Circuit in Kolkata!)
7. Annual Day – To thank our very own outgoing fifth years (Batch of 2019), the Cultural committee organised a DJ night outside the Boys hostel after the Annual Awards distribution ceremony.

8. Mirchi Music Cover – Radio Mirchi, along with Smule and Mobiwick, came to NUJS for a fun and interactive singing competition where winners of several categories were given cash vouchers by worth 1000 rupees.
9. Convocation Night- The Graduating Batch of 2018 was given a final send off in an unforgettable night in classic NUJS Style.
10. The NUJS Night: Starting with several music performances, NUJS Night saw some super talented fifth-years giving us the best “OLT” shows. After the much-awaited dance performance by the University Dance team, a round of poetry giving everyone a good round of laughter, the famous Nariyal Awards and finally the NUJS Skit.
11. The Lohri Night- has carved out its own popularity with an amazing blend of festival celebrations and DJ Night. Turned out Quad isn't a very bad venue for our in-house celebrations, with a warm bonfire to keep warm in the peak of the Calcutta Winter.
12. Inter-batch Dance Competition - One of the most awaited events in college, Inter-batch dance again saw the auditorium fill up with everyone from the hostel coming down to watch their batches perform. The enthusiasm showed by all the batches was infectious and every batch performance saw the rest of its shy members jumping on the stage and shaking a leg. The fifth years yet again managed to win the competition with their fabulous OLT performances.
13. Midweek Blues - This year saw the extension of Sunday Sessions, thanks to Shourya Mittal, with three 'Midweek Blues' sessions hosted in 006, for all of the students enjoyed a lot.
14. Poetry Initiative - A new beginning, a new push for the poets and shayars on campus, founded by Aman Goyal was yet another event which attracted a good crowd in Room 006.
15. The Fine Arts Team - arguably the most functional University Team this year, the FineArts team contributed in almost every event in college, making them more colorful and enjoyable. From heading Outlawed Decor to giving the Recreation Room a fresh look, the team has made a lot of heads turn this year with their creative, dedicated work.

This was purposely done to reduce the obvious prior advantage the students from senior batches would have got and was aimed at bridging the gap between first year participants and Fifth year participants. Our effort as well as thought process behind the move bore results as a First Year student from GNLU i.e. Soham Mukhopadhyay achieved 3 rd position in the competition.

This competition was specifically organized to celebrate and critique the remarkable and landmark judgements delivered in 2018 in the field of Criminal Law. This competition provided a platform for law students to provide a holistic and an in-depth critique of the historical judgements of Joseph Shine vs UOI, Navtej Johar vs UOI and Independent Thought vs UOI. The students capitalized on this opportunity to boost their academic writings as well as research skills and their submissions reflected a thorough understanding of the principals of Criminal Law, its interplay with society, and its relationship with the conception of morality. The competition was won by a team of Isha Rai & Janhvi Tripathi of Faculty of Law, BHU, while Arvind Pennathur & Shambhavi Mishra of NALSAR and Swagata & Prerona of NLUO finished as first and second runner ups respectively.

As law students we have always believed that the knowledge of all forms of dispute resolution is essential for us to perform our duty as lawyers, and since ADR is the future of dispute resolution, it is crucial to expose students to its diverse facets. The purpose of the society was to spread awareness about ADR activities at NUJS and give a platform to anyone who is interested in ADR to receive training and represent the University at both a national and an international level. In furtherance of this purpose, the Alternative Dispute Resolution Society NUJS 2018 – 2019 has taken exemplary efforts in cultivating an environment in the university where students are given the opportunity to learn the nuances and intricacies of the art of mediation and negotiation and also learn it through practice.

II. ORIENTATION FOR FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

The directors and members of the society conducted a workshop for first year students intricately explaining them all the facets of alternative dispute resolution and its imperative role in a law school environment. The procedures of both negotiation and mediation were even demonstrated, introducing them to this art. The success of this workshop was proven with a massive application for the membership of the society from the first year batch.

III. MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

IV. IN HOUSE WORKSHOPS

In order to provide more clarity to the alternative dispute resolution environment, the proficient mediators and negotiators of the university conducted several workshops in the Auditorium. The students selected to represent the university in both national and international competitions are selected after rigorous rounds of the internal allotment process judged by experts in this field. This year, the internals took place in the month of August, seeing a massive participation from the General Body. The cumulative number of people participating was close to 250 (approximately), hence spanning the process to a three-day event.

The interest from the endowment was to be used to support the salary for the Endowed Chair, travelling expenses and administrative costs. It was mandatory to reinvest 25 per cent (25%) of endowment income back into the corpus so as to maintain its value in perpetuity. During the five year period beginning on the date of disbursement, the Principal contributed by the Foundation and any appreciation or income earned thereon may not be expended (except to any administrative costs with respect to the Fund) without the consent of the Foundation. After a period of five years from the date of disbursement, and until such time as the Foundation consents otherwise in writing, withdrawals from the fund was to be confined to seventy five per cent (75%) of the interest earned and dividend received in respect of the Fund and no net appreciation in the value of the fund may be expended. As per modified term of Ford Foundation conveyed by mail dated 09/09/2008, 20% of the interest earned on the fund could be ploughed back in the fund i.e. 80% could be utilized for administrative costs etc. Again on November 23, 2009, the Foundation instructed that the University's Spending Policy with respect to the endowment included in the grant notification letter dated 01/02/2005 and modification on September 9, 2008 was modified as follows : "Withdrawals from the Fund was to be confined to not more than ninety per cent (90%) of the interest earned and divided

For that reason, the accumulations on maturity of certain fixed deposits amounting to Rs. 1,86,00,000 (Rupees one crore eighty six lakhs) was invested in Government GOI Bond at 8% interest per annum which will be matured in 2023 with the value of Rs. 2,97,88,206 i.e. nearly Rs. 3 crores. On 1st December, 2017, the new Chair Professor (Hon’ble Justice Tarun Chatterjee), was appointed and on 7th February 2018, Mr. Suman Saha, Research Assistant to the Chair joined with respective salaries @ Rs. 70000/- per month &amp; @ Rs. 30,000/- per month. After paying those salaries to them from the dates of joining, the interest balance in savings bank A/c. as on 15/06/2018 at SBI, PB Branch, Saltlake is as below : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Under S/B A/c. – Rs. 41, 162.00</li> <li>2. Under MOD A/c. – Rs. 81,973.00</li> </ol> The payments are normally made by using S/B A/c. balance as the MOD A/c. is giving higher rate of interest; So any withdrawal from that Account will be a financial loss to the University. It is apparent that the S/B account balance as shown above will not be able to meet the requirement of Rs. one lakh for payment of salary and full withdrawal cannot be made without keeping minimum balance unless it is closed. There are four Fixed Deposits which are due to be matured in between August 2018 to November 2018 amounting to
