

NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies Governance and Public Policy

Centre for Regulatory Studies, Governance and Public Policy
The West Bengal National University for Juridical Sciences, Kolkata

Call for Papers

The Centre for Regulatory Studies, Governance and Public Policy (CRSGPP) was established at the West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences in July 2015 to promote interdisciplinary research. It was established on the basis of the concurrence of the Department of Higher Education and Finance Department of the Government of West Bengal and further approved by the Executive Council of the University in its 48th Meeting held on April 25, 2015. CRSGPP is supported by the Judicial Department, Government of West Bengal since its inception.

Centre for Regulatory Studies, Governance and Public Policy hereby invite scholarly articles on a rolling basis for its peer-reviewed Journal- NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies that shall be published in the upcoming issues. (Volume 5 onwards).

About the Journal

The Journal is uniquely construed for extending beyond articulating and conceptualising the problems that plague the society but aims at invoking action based on the issues raised in the publication. The Journal is primarily concerned with governance and policy formulations, does not seek to restrict the scholars' creative minds, and encourages papers pertaining to law, social science, science, and other relevant issues in which intervention at various levels can be sought. The Journal appreciates analytical doctrinal research as well as empirical field research that is aimed at worthwhile contribution to the field and chosen subject area. The motto of the Journal is to call for action through policies aiding good governance. The Journal invites contributions on the subject areas focusing on legislative policy, administration of justice, implementation of law and comparative study of policy implications.

NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies is a quarterly online journal bearing ISSN no. 2456-4605 (O) and actively contributes to the existing knowledge base since its first publication in 2016.

We encourage and welcome original research work from research scholars, faculties, bureaucrats, scientists and students to enrich the Journal.

Guidelines for Submission:

For guidelines on submission, please refer to the Submission Guidelines NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies Guidelines.

Deadline:

The Journal is accepting articles on a rolling basis throughout the year. However, the publication is every quarter starting with the first issue in January every year.

Submissions should be made to <journal email id> with the subject of the email titled as the following: SUBMISSION:_ Title of the paper_Name of the author.

Contact Details:

For any queries regarding submissions, kindly write to:

Vijoy Kumar Sinha (Assistant Editor) - vijoy.crsgpp@nujs.edu

Sanghamitra Baladhikari (Assistant Editor) - sanghamitra.crsgpp@nujs.edu

Submission Guidelines

I. Guidelines on Authorship

A. Authorship

Contribution for the Journal shall be accepted only from the original authors. A maximum of four authors can be accommodated as joint authors. The first author shall be ordinarily treated as the corresponding author. It is on the prerogative of the authors on the principal authorship or authorship order.

1. Authors must provide their affiliation with complete contact details, including postal and email addresses and mobile numbers.
2. It is the author's responsibility to disclose any potential conflict of interest regarding the Manuscript.

B. Acknowledgements

Please mention any personal, professional or institutional acknowledgements (if any) separately to the main text.

II. Author Rights

As an author, you (or your employer or institution) have certain rights to reuse your work which is limited in nature and any clarification that may be sought from Editor-in-Chief as and when required.

III. Guidelines on Manuscript

1. The preferred length of a long article is between 8,000 and 12,000 words, including references.
2. The preferred length of a short article/case comment is between 3,000 and 5,000 words, including references.
3. All articles must be accompanied by an abstract of 150–200 words together with approximately five keywords.

4. Book reviews should be between 1,200 and 1,500 words with full details of the book reviewed, including the subtitle, the author's name, place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, number of pages and the price.
5. Manuscripts must be double-spaced with one-inch margins all around. Use Times New Roman with the 12-point font for all typed text.
6. To avoid grammatical and spelling errors, you are strongly advised to use your word processor's 'spell-check' and 'grammar-check' functions.
9. Single quotes throughout; double quotes used within single quotes. Spellings of words in quotations should not be changed.

a. Essential title page information

1. Title: should be concise and indicative. Avoid abbreviations in the title.
2. Author names and affiliations: Please indicate the authors' names separately with their affiliations and check that all names are accurately spelt. Indicate all affiliations with a lowercase letter immediately after the author's name. Provide the full postal address of each affiliation with the email address and phone number of each author.
3. Corresponding author: Indicate the corresponding author in case of multiple authors who will be contacted if needed for correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post-publication. Ensure that the email address and contact details given are up to date of the corresponding author and that any changes should be immediately informed.

b. Use of inclusive language

1. Authors should ensure that the contents of the Manuscript are free from bias, recognises the diversities and conveys respect and sensitivity towards differences.
2. Articles should use inclusive language throughout the Manuscript to ensure that it gives no way for any assumptions about the beliefs or commitments of any subject being researcher or the community it caters to or even the reader. It should contain nothing which might imply that one individual is superior to another on the grounds of race, sex, culture or any other characteristic.

c. Copyright

1. Being an online Journal, the content is published on the Journal's websites as well as on select databases. The Copyright of the research articles published in the Journal is held by the University, i.e. WBNUJS

IV. Submission Declaration and Verification

Submission of an article implies that the work has not been published previously and/or that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere at the time of submission. The embargo upon the author's right to submit continues until a final decision on the Manuscript is awarded. Post acceptance of the Manuscript, the author must submit a declaration that the submission and its subsequent publication are approved by the author(s).

V. Funding

The Journal requires all authors to acknowledge their funding agency, if any, in the article itself.

VI. Plagiarism

The Journal believes copyright infringement and plagiarism are breaches of best practice in publication and strongly expects that the authors of the Manuscripts which are submitted to the Journal share the same belief. Submitted articles shall be checked with the Turnitin software, and only those with under 15% similarity count shall be considered for peer review.

VII. Reference Style

NUJS Journal of Regulatory Studies shall adhere to the latest American Psychological Association, Latest Edition referencing style. References in a special issue shall be the same.

How to list the references?

References should be arranged alphabetically.

- a. Examples: Reference to a journal publication: Van der Geer, J., Hanraads, J. A. J., & Lupton, R. A. (2010). The art of writing a scientific article. Journal of Scientific Communications, 163, 51–59. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.Sc.2010.00372>.

- b. Reference to a journal publication with an article number: Van der Geer, J., Hanraads, J. A. J., & Lupton, R. A. (2018). The art of writing a scientific article. Heliyon, 19, e00205. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.heliyon.2018.e00205>.
- c. Reference to a book: Strunk, W., Jr., & White, E. B. (2000). The elements of style. (4th ed.). New York: Longman, (Chapter 4). Reference to a chapter in an edited book: Mettam, G. R., & Adams, L. B. (2009).
- d. How to prepare an electronic version of an article. In B. S. Jones, & R. Z. Smith (Eds.), Introduction to the electronic age (pp. 281–304). New York: E-Publishing Inc. Reference to a website: Cancer Research UK. Cancer statistics reports for the UK. (2003). <http://www.cancerresearchuk.org/aboutcancer/statistics/cancerstatsreport/> Accessed 13 March 2003.
- e. Reference to a dataset: [dataset] Oguro, M., Imahiro, S., Saito, S., Nakashizuka, T. (2015). Mortality data for Japanese oak wilt disease and surrounding forest compositions. Mendeley Data, v1. <https://doi.org/10.17632/xwj98nb39r.1>.
- f. Reference to a conference paper or poster presentation: Engle, E.K., Cash, T.F., & Jarry, J.L. (2009, November). The Body Image Behaviours Inventory-3: Development and validation of the Body Image Compulsive Actions and Body Image Avoidance Scales. Poster session presentation at the meeting of the Association for Behavioural and Cognitive Therapies, New York, NY.

VIII. Ethics in Publishing

1. Authorship of the paper: Authorship has to be constrained to those who have made a widespread contribution to the conception, design, execution, or interpretation of the mentioned study.
2. The originality of the research and plagiarism: The authors have to make sure that they have written authentic works, and if the authors have used the paintings and/or phrases of others, the same has to be stated or quoted.
3. Data access and retention: Authors can be requested to offer the raw/original data in reference to a paper for editorial review and have to be organised to offer the public admission to such data.

4. Multiple, redundant or concurrent publication: An author should not have in general published manuscripts describing essentially the same research in more than one journal or primary publication or submit any paper when it is pending in another journal/book chapters/law reports.
5. Acknowledgement of Sources: Proper acknowledgement of the work of others must be given.
6. Reporting standards: Authors of reports of original research should present an accurate account of the work performed as well as an objective discussion of its significance.

IX. Submission Checklist

Ensure that the following items are present in the submission:

- Email address
- Full postal address

The corresponding author is provided in cases of multiple authors.

All necessary files have been uploaded:

- Manuscript
- Title page
- Declaration of interest
- Declaration of authorship
- Metadata (if any and author(s) wish to submit)

Manuscript:

- Keywords
- All figures and tables (including titles, description, footnotes and captions)

Further considerations

- 'Spell check' and 'grammar check' of the Manuscript submitted.
- All references mentioned in the Reference List are cited adequately and completely.
- Permission has been obtained for any copyrighted material, including the ones from the internet.
- A competing interest statement is provided if needed.
- Journal policies detailed in this guide have been adhered to.

X. Author Inquiries

In case of any queries, email at: crsgpp@nujs.edu or spc@nujs.edu.