7. Proposal for increasing the strength of LL.M. Programme

WBNUJS is authorized to have 20 students for LL.M. programme which is seemed to be very low in number.

It is proposed that the intake of students for the LL.M. Programme be increased to 40 from existing 20.

Submitted for kind approval by the Hon'ble members.

8. Proposed changes in attendance rule

In terms of the basic requirements of the Bar Council of India (BCI) for attendance in the class minimum 70% of the classes are required to be attended which is effective from Winter Semester 2011.

However students who attends the Moot Court/ debates & Legal Aid Society Programmes which are authorized by the University, their attendance will be calculated as attendance to classes to the maximum extent of 4 percent only.

This 70% attendance rule 2011-12 supersedes all previous attendance rules.

Submitted for kind approval by the Hon'ble members of the Council.

9. Student exchange programme between AP University of Law, Vishakhapatnam and the WBNUJS, Kolkata:

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE WEST BENGAL NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES, KOLKATA

AND

ANDHRA PRADESH UNIVERSITY OF LAW, VISAKHAPATNAM

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

THE WEST BENGAL NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF JURIDICAL SCIENCES, was established under the WBNUJS Act, 1999 (West Bengal Act IX of 1999) adopted by the West Bengal Legislature in July, 1999. The University was notified under Clause (f) of Section 2 of the UGC Act, 1956 in August 2004 and has been granted permanent affiliation by the Bar Council of India in July 2005.

ANDHRA PRADESH UNIVERSITY OF LAW, Visakhapatnam was established in 2008 by the Government of Andhra Pradesh under the Andhra Pradesh University of Law Act 2008, (Act No. 32 of 2008), with its headquarters at Visakhapatnam.

Whereas, A.P University of Law, Visakhapatnam desires to establish academic collaboration with Institutions of excellence in Law in the country and West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences, (NUJS), Kolkata is one among such recognized institutions and seeks to promote the institutional collaborations through this Memorandum of Understanding.

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

This Memorandum of Understanding is signed between the West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences, (NUJS), Kolkata as First Party and Andhra Pradesh University of Law (APUL), Visakhapatnam as Second Party for the purpose of Academic Collaboration that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between the two parties as well as other academic activities, research and publication. In addition to this, active efforts will be made to develop joint training and research programmes that will be pursued in a collaborative spirit. Some of the collaborative areas include the following:

I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF COOPERATION

1. NUJS and APUL shall collaborate in mutually agreeable academic events, teaching, training and research, wherever feasible. Such collaboration will be based on mutually agreeable terms and conditions specifically agreed for each of the collaborative efforts;
2. NUJS and APUL shall offer full time regular as well as optional courses to the undergraduate and post-graduate courses offered at these institutions from time to time on mutually agreeable terms and conditions;
3. The Ph.D. candidates in interdisciplinary areas of research involving law from the APUL shall work under the supervision of the faculty members of NUJS or if agreed, jointly supervised by the faculty members from the two parties;
4. Faculty members from each of these universities shall be invited for important seminars, conferences and for teaching at doctoral level. The financial implications shall be worked out on a case to case basis;
5. Those modalities for a similar exchange of researchers and faculty members will be laid down through mutual discussion that should be made operational for a period of five years;
6. Ph. D. Scholars of both the Universities are welcome to make use of the library resources of each other and to have academic interaction with the faculty;
7. Research Scholars and Teaching Faculty of both NUJS and APUL will explore possibility of taking up collaborative research work and also apply for funding from national and international agencies, governments and other funding agencies;
8. Any financial implication emerging out of such collaborations (other than the fees of the students etc.) shall be worked out and decisions will be taken with mutual agreement.

II. AREAS OF COOPERATION

This Memorandum expresses a mutual desire by NUJS and APUL cooperates in building intellectual and research capacity and scholarship. Additional areas of cooperation may be added by written consent of the two parties. Both parties will act in good faith to ensure that the objectives in this Memorandum are realized.

III. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Progress in realizing the terms and conditions referred to herein will be reviewed periodically as mutually agreed and the memorandum may be amended at any time by mutual consent and in writing. Both parties reserve the right to terminate this memorandum by either party by giving six months written notice to the other. The implementation and/or continuance of programmes or projects established pursuant to this memorandum prior to the effective date of termination shall not be affected by the termination of this Memorandum.

IV. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

1. In respect of each project and programme of co-operation, the parties shall negotiate and mutually agree in writing on their respective rights to intellectual property and commercial exploitation of the same (including without limitation, trademarks and service marks, copyrights, patents, designs and confidential information pertaining thereto).
2. Neither party shall, at any time disclose to any third party any confidential information of the other party which is acquired in the course of activities under this Memorandum, a collaborative project or a programme, without the prior consent of the other party in writing.

The confidentiality obligations herein will not apply to information in the public domain; information in the possession of the receiving party prior to the disclosure of the information; information which is independently developed by the receiving party; information required to be released by law; and information which is rightfully received by the receiving party from third parties without any breach of confidentiality obligations.

V. NON. BINDING NATURE OF MEMORANDUM

Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any contract, partnership, agency or other legal relationship between the parties. This Memorandum is only a non-binding statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration.

VI. TERMINATION

1. This memorandum shall come into force immediately upon its signature by the parties.
2. The validity of this Memorandum of Understanding is initially for a period of five years from the date of its execution and the same can be further extended on mutual agreement.
3. This Memorandum of Understanding can be terminated by either of the parties by giving advance notice of six months and without jeopardizing the coursework or registration of any of the students of either institution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Memorandum of Understanding is executed by the parties hereto on the date of signing of the Memorandum of Understanding by the two parties.

A proposal on
POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN NUCLEAR LAW (PGDNL)

The Course will be aimed at providing an in-depth understanding of nuclear law along with the relevant basic principles of public international law. The course is expected to be useful to the candidates having legal as well as scientific background.

Course duration: One year

Mode: Distance education

Qualification required: Bachelor degree in any discipline from a recognized University. The course is also open to those candidates who are in the final year of Bachelor degree. However, the granting of the Degree (PGDNL) is contingent upon the successful completion of the Bachelor degree by the candidate.

Subjects:

- Paper I: Introduction to Law and Basic Principles of Nuclear law
- Paper II: Nuclear Non-proliferation and Safeguards
- Paper III: Nuclear Safety and Regulatory Regimes
- Paper IV: Liability for Nuclear damage
- Paper V: Dissertation

Components: Paper I to IV would compose of individual project in each paper and final examination.

Paper V would be a dissertation of about 50 to 60 pages on a topic chosen by the student in consultation with the teacher concerned. It would also contain a Viva-voce examination.

Study material: The study material on paper I to IV would be prepared and provided to the students during the first session of contact classes. The same would be sent by post to the students who do not attend the first session.

Library access: All the students are entitled to have access to NUJS library on all working days.

Contact classes: 18 hours per subject (except paper V). A session on research methodology would be held to facilitate the writing of dissertation.

The classes would be held for a week in each semester at NUJS premises. Attending the contact classes is optional.

Marks allocation: Total marks would be 500. Papers I to IV would carry 100 marks each, which includes 30 marks for projects and 70 marks for final examination. The dissertation would be evaluated out of 70 marks and remaining 30 marks are allotted for Viva-voce examination.

Passing marks: Minimum 40% of marks must be obtained by the students to pass a paper.

Examination: The final examination would be held annually in the month of April/May.

Maximum period: The candidate must complete the course by obtaining minimum passing marks within three years from registration. Upon the failure to complete the course within stipulated period, the registration of the candidate gets cancelled. The candidate, if willing, must register afresh by following the usual procedure prescribed for first admission.

Fee structure:

Fee Head	Indian Candidates	Foreign/NRI Candidates
