These licensed liftmen are available with housekeeping agencies and accordingly the University proposes to approach enlisted housekeeping agencies. Provision for this expenditure may be made in the revised budget estimates 2008-09.	As directed, the matter was placed in the Standing Committee.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am Dean of Yale Law School. On behalf of Yale Law School (YLS), I have asked Professor C. Raj Kumar, the Chief Executive Officer of the Legal Education and Research Society (LEARS), to represent the school in connection with a new YLS program that will support two YLS graduates (Oscar M. Ruebhausen South Asia Teaching Fellows) to teach law and policy at two separate South Asia law schools for one year each. LEARS has assisted the YLS in selecting the Fellows. I have authorized Professor Kumar to enter preliminary discussions on our behalf with these potential participating schools in order to facilitate the arrangement of the pedagogical, library, residential, and security conditions necessary for the Yale Ruebhausen Fellows to have a satisfying intellectual and recreational experience, both at the participating schools and in their spare time there.

We look forward to the possibility of working with you as a Participating School in this pilot project. If you have any questions that Professor Kumar cannot answer, please feel free to contact me as Dean (harold.koh@yale.edu and georganne.rogers@yale.edu), associate dean Mark Templeton (mark.templeton@yale.edu), or the faculty sponsor of this program, Professor Peter H. Dear Prof. Dr. M.P. Singh, Thank you very much for your letter and I deeply appreciate your response to my interest in teaching at NUJS. I am looking for a deputation tenure of at least 1 yr at the university as per the existing terms and conditions that apply for a serving central government civil servant. Essentially it means that pay and allowances and other benefits will be at least equal to those I am entitled as an officer of the senior administrative grade. Deputation allowances sometime make the total emolument higher in the case of some deputationist.

My present basic pay is Rs.22,400 plus dearness pay of Rs.11,200. The dearness allowance is about Rs.13,000. The total emolument is about Rs.46,000. I do not get any HRA since I am living in a govt. accommodation at Dover Lane. Like all HODs, I get official car and official telephone- both land line and mobile connections. If I continue to be covered under CGHS, I may not need any medical benefits. I am looking forward to joining NUJS with effect from April, 2006 subject to government of India's approval. Thanking you.

With warm regards,
Gautam Ray

Dear Prof Thorat

The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has a continuing Scheme of Free Coaching for Scheduled Castes and Other Backward Classes students for specified recruitment and entrance examinations. On the basis of the experience gained in course of its implementation, the Scheme has been revamped recently.

C. M. Sectt.
Dr. No. 6.570
Date: 08/10/07

2. The main constraint in the erstwhile scheme was found to be a pre-determined fixed ceiling of the coaching fee as well as the duration of the coaching. With a view to attract quality institutes, it has now been decided that these will be determined on case to case basis by a high level multi-disciplinary committee in the Ministry. To streamline it further, hundred percent Central funding and obtaining the proposals directly by the Ministry are also the features of the new Scheme. Details of the new Scheme are available on the website of the Ministry viz. www.socialjustice.nic.in

3. In response to the advertisements by the Ministry during May and June, 2007, the response by the universities has been rather limited and so far proposals have been received only from seven universities (list enclosed). I would be grateful if this could be given wide circulation among the various universities recognized by the University Grants Commission.

With regards

Yours sincerely,

Chhotray

Re: Invitation to IAU 13th General Conference
15-18 July, 2008, Utrecht, the Netherlands

Dear President, Rector or Vice Chancellor,

On behalf of Prof. Goolam Mohamedbhai, President of the International Association of Universities (IAU) and the IAU Administrative Board, it is my pleasure to invite you to the IAU 13th General Conference. This major event in the life of this global association of universities and other higher education institutions will be held at Utrecht University in the Netherlands from 15 to 18 July 2008.

This General Conference, marking the 60 years of the IAU, will focus on the theme, Higher Education and Research Addressing Local and Global Needs. This thematic focus was chosen to echo the very reasons that led to the creation of the Association some 60 years ago, namely the multiple roles and responsibilities of institutions of higher education and research.

The Thematic Programme will open with a Dialogue on Universities as Local and Global Actors, bringing together Koïchiro Matsuura, Director General of UNESCO, Angel Gurría, Director General of OECD, and Joy Phumaphi, Vice-President of the World Bank as well as higher education leaders. In the enclosed brochure, you will find an outline of the overall conference programme, including all the topics that will be discussed.

Traditionally, IAU General Conferences bring together higher education leaders, decision-makers in university organizations and government policy specialists, researchers and other interested stakeholders, including student representatives. They are truly global networking occasions.

The General Conference is also the highest decision-making body of IAU for all IAU members. It serves to review the work accomplished over the past four years and to set the general strategy for future development of the Association. It is also on this occasion that the new IAU President and Administrative Board are elected.

We would warmly welcome you and/or other representatives from your institutions at the General Conference next year. Perhaps, you will consider applying for membership in the Association in order to participate more actively in the debates, stand for election for the Board and vote for other candidates. All information concerning IAU membership is available online at <http://www.unesco.org/iau/membership/index.html>. For any additional question, please contact IAU at: devylder.iau@unesco.org.

Even as a non-Member, you can pre-register online to receive regular, electronic updates on the programme at: www.unesco.org/iau/conferences/Utrecht/index.html. As well, full Registration is now also possible.

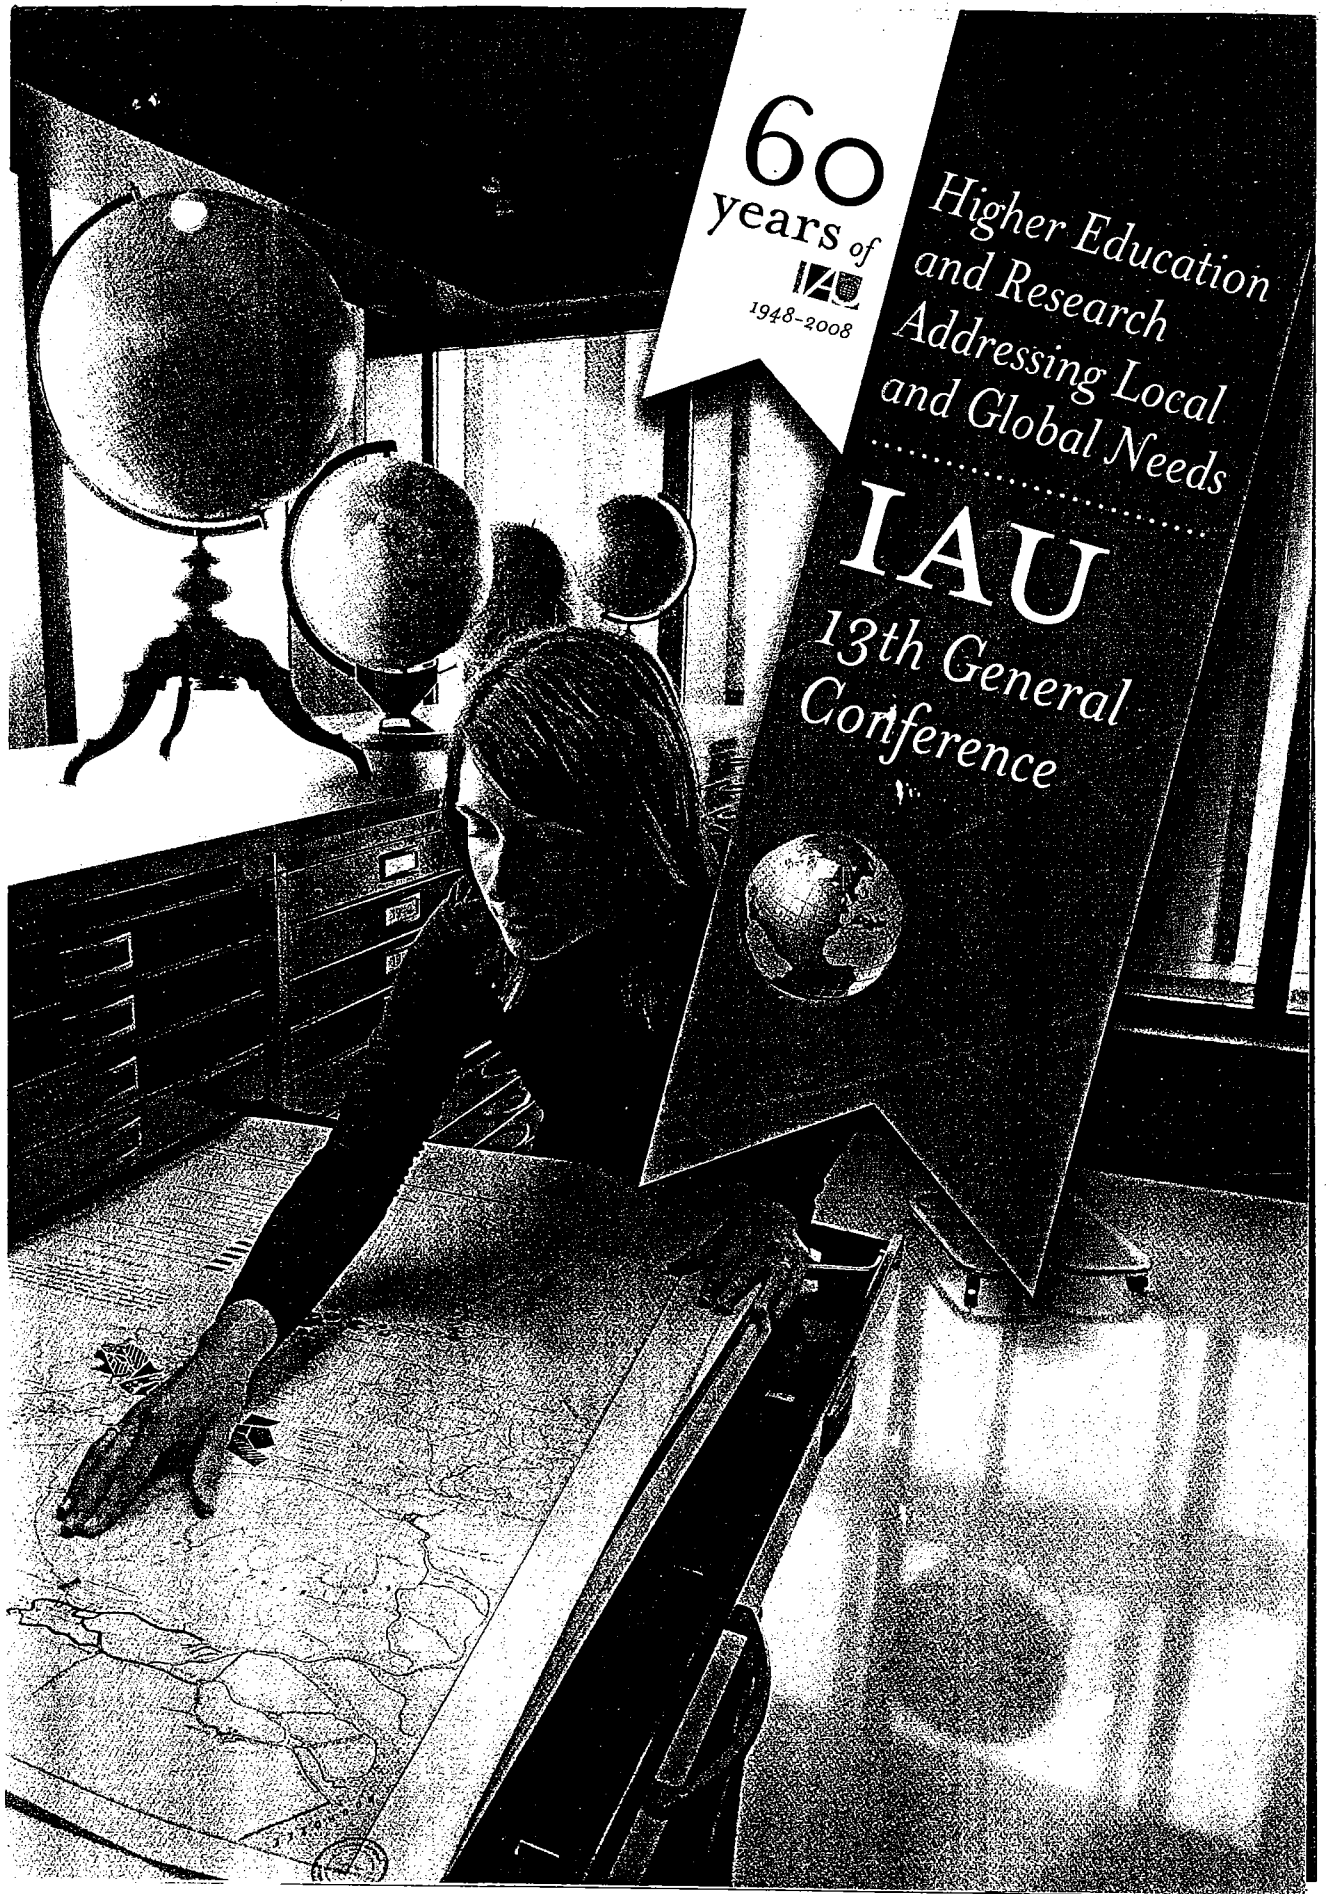

My colleagues and I hope to have an opportunity to welcome you in Utrecht.

Yours Sincerely,

Eva Egron Polak

Higher Education

Addressing Local

IAU
13th General
Conference

IAU at Utrecht 1948 - 2008

The IAU 13th General Conference will be held in July 2008 at Utrecht University, marking 60 years of the International Association of Universities (IAU)! It was in August 1948, in Utrecht, under the Patronage of the Royal House and the Government of The Netherlands that UNESCO called for a Preparatory Conference of University Representatives which eventually led to the founding of IAU two years later in Nice, France.

Higher Education and Research Addressing Local and Global Needs

'Higher Education and Research Addressing Local and Global Needs', the theme of the 13th General Conference, echoes the very reasons that led to the creation of the Association, namely the responsibilities of higher education and research institutions to serve the world around them. And, as 60 years ago, today, many of the challenges facing higher education are of an international nature, requiring international collaboration, learning from each other and undertaking collective action. Given the technology- and knowledge- intensiveness of current developments, higher education and research institutions have become central actors, both as drivers of innovation and progress but also as institutions that can question proposed answers and find solutions to the unexpected or even undesirable effects of change.

International Association of Universities (IAU)

IAU is an international non-governmental association of higher education institutions and organizations from around the world. It was founded in 1950 and is housed at UNESCO. IAU's mission is to strengthen higher education worldwide by providing a global forum for institutional and association leaders for reflection and action on common concerns. The Association upholds the values of academic freedom and institutional autonomy, while promoting greater accountability, institutional responsibility and effectiveness, and the ideal of knowledge made accessible to all through collaboration, commitment to solidarity and improved access to higher education. The Association collaborates with various international, regional and national bodies and groups active in higher education. Its services are available to organizations, institutions and authorities concerned with higher education, as well as to individual policy and decision-makers, specialists, administrators, teachers, researchers and students.

NUJS Journal Fund

Students of NUJS have ventured into an ambitious project of publishing two journals – the annual JURIDICAL REVIEW and the quarterly NUJS LAW REVIEW. It has already obtained approval of the Registrar of Newspaper in India (RNI) – Annexure AA1. Maiden issue of the NLR (January – March 2008) is scheduled to come out in February next. It is student-oriented effort under the workmanship of an Editorial Board of which the Vice-Chancellor is the Editor-in-Chief. While a few copies (maximum 200) will be initially distributed as complementaries, it is going to be a priced publication, targeted for law libraries, legal practitioners and academia. Distribution and publication rights are vested with the NUJS.

In order to maintain transparent accounts and appropriate financial control, it is proposed to create a separate fund, namely ‘NUJS Journal Fund’, which will account for the sale proceeds and be charged for the expenses. In other words, it will be a self-supportive venture. The University may initially grant from its Academic Development Fund a loan of rupees three lakhs, to be recouped within a maximum period of five years. All eventual surplus will revert to the University. The Fund may be operated jointly by the Registrar and the Vice-Chancellor. It will be subject to annual audit by the statutory auditors.

Submitted for direction of the Committee.

Requirement of Staff in Accounts Department

In terms of direction of the Standing committee (Meeting dated 15th October 2007 Agenda No 19) Shri Avijit Ghosh was engaged as an "Accountant" on ad hoc basis w.e.f. 1-9-2007. In view of acute shortage of staff the services of Shri Ghosh has been retained till 04-05-2008. This is for kind information.

Incidentally, Sri. Probal Chanda D.E.O. who has been working in the Accounts Department since his joining on 27 November 2003, has been selected for appointment in Central Secretariat Service. He is likely to leave NUJS soon. This will cause further depletion in the administrative staff strength.. Based on an internal study of workload and minimum number of staff needed to deal with it, it is submitted that following posts may be sanctioned in place of existing support staff in Accounts Department and persons recruited to fill them immediately. The requirement assessed is as under:
