Sir,
With due respect this is to let you know that I would like to seek certain clarifications from the University as per the following —
1) Status of my continuity of service from my previous employer since I had applied for the post of lecturer in WJVS through proper channel. In that case whether my basic pay was protected or not? Under the circumstances
I think, an arrear is also due which the University should try to look into and do the needful in this matter.
2) Seniority in Service at WJVS since the date of joining i.e., 7th Jan 2005.
3) Whether my past service has been acknowledged at WJVS?

4) Finally I would be highly obliged if you kindly give me a yearly statement with accumulated balance of EL and Commuted leave. I hope this statement would be beneficial for all the employees.

Waiting for your early response.
I hope you will kindly do the needful and oblige.

Re : Proposal for Campus Wide Network at NUJS under the provision of MoU signed between ERNET India and NUJS dt. 27.09.2007

Dear Sir,

This is in response to your proposal submitted to us vide your letter No. EI-D/Tech./9-86/07 dt. 27.11.07. Our comments on your proposal are as follows. You are request to respond at the earliest.

1. Item-wise cost-wise break-up of both active and passive components including details of make and model need to be furnished.
2. As regard to optional items at 6.0 A1 detailed clarification of the product to be furnished.
3. The advantage of CAT-6 cable over CAT-5e cable may be justified considering that the latter provides sufficient bandwidth for work-stations and existing application and is more cost effective than CAT-6.

4. The feasibility of integrating the pre-existing D-link Cat5e cabling in the hostels into the network proposed with necessary structuring (installation of patch panels replacement of damaged wire) instead of replacing the whole.
5. There is no mention in the report for logging and auditing capabilities of network data flow.
6. The possibility of utilizing open source LINUX/UNIX based systems for cost arbitrage.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Rechtskulturen Postdoctoral Fellowship

Berlin, 23/03/2012
ak/ts

Dear Dr. Routh,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that you have been selected and nominated as a Fellow of the Berlin Postdoctoral Fellow Program Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison for the academic year 2011/2012.

The fellows of our program were selected during a day-long meeting of the selection committee at the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin. The nominees were selected in a rigorous and highly competitive two-step procedure. The selection committee consisted of Professor Philipp Dann (Gießen), Professor Helge Dedek (Bonn/Montreal), Professor Katharina de la Durantaye (Berlin), Professor Julia Eckert (Bern), Dr. Ann-Katrin Kaufhold (Berlin), Professor Matthias Kumm (New York/Berlin), Professor Astrid Lorenz (Berlin), Professor Irene Schneider (Göttingen), Professor Milos Vec (Frankfurt a.M./Berlin) as well as the directors of the program Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison, Professor Susanne Baer (Karlsruhe/Berlin) and Professor Christoph Möllers (Berlin). A number of external referees contributed additional assessments of the project proposals submitted by the applicants.

Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison is a program of the Berlin Research Network Recht im Kontext at the Forum Transregionale Studien, a new research platform designed to promote research that connects systematic and region-specific questions from a perspective that addresses entanglements and interactions beyond national, cultural or regional frameworks. The Forum is funded by the Senate of Berlin and is currently administered by the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin. Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison is co-directed by Justice Professor Susanne Baer (Bundesverfassungsgericht, Karlsruhe/Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) and Professor Christoph Möllers (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) and coordinated by Alexandra Kemmerer (Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin), executive director and academic coordinator of the Berlin Research Network Recht im Kontext. The program is associated with the Faculty of Law at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin.

For our further planning, we would ask that you confirm acceptance of the postdoctoral fellowship at your earliest convenience – by phone, fax or e-mail.

I enclose a contractual agreement clarifying the conditions of your Rechtskulturen fellowship. Please read it carefully, sign it, and send three signed copies back to us (on paper, by mail). I will then sign them myself and return one copy to you. As soon as we receive the signed agreement, we will inform you as to further procedure and the next practical steps. Please read, complete and sign also the attached Personal Statement and send it back to us.

Please do not hesitate to get back to us with any questions you may have. We are looking forward to having you with us in the academic year 2012/2013.

Sincerely yours,

Alexandra Kemmerer

Rechtskulturen Fellowship 2012/2013

1. Supriya Routh hereby acknowledges the decision of the program Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison, a project of the Berlin Research Network Law in Context at the Forum Transregionale Studien (Forum), administered by the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin, to grant her a fellowship for the post-doctoral program Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison for the academic year 2012/2013 (October 1, 2012 through July 31, 2013) and consisting of
 - a. a monthly stipend of € 2,250
plus a monthly family allowance of € 250 for accompanying partner and/or children (minimum stay of the partner and/or children is 3 months without interruption);
 - b. reimbursement of her travel expenses from her home residence to Berlin as well as the return trip (train – 2nd class, flight – economy class);
 - c. an initial relocation lump sum of € 430 (to be paid with the first stipend installment so as to contribute to additional costs of relocation, such as charges for extra baggage or research materials, visa fees, travel costs of accompanying partner and/or family, and the costs of getting settled in Berlin);
 - d. Rechtskulturen may cover the costs of health insurance for the fellow and her accompanying partner and/or children in case the fellow's insurance fails to provide adequate coverage for her stay in Germany (see 4.e).

2. Supriya Routh hereby confirms her acceptance of the fellowship and commits herself for the time stipulated above
- to take up residence in Berlin;
 - to devote her efforts to the project proposal submitted in her application;
 - to participate regularly in the activities and seminars of the program she is affiliated with as well as in the seminars that are set up by the Forum for the postdoctoral fellows of projects at the Forum;
 - to regularly work in the academic institution with which she is associated during the academic year of the fellowship;
 - to mention her affiliation as a Rechtskulturen Fellow at the Forum Transregionale Studien in all publications resulting from her work during the fellowship and in publications submitted as well as lectures and presentations given during her fellowship;
 - to report, on request, on the course of her studies and to present an evaluation of her research at the end of the fellowship;
 - to abstain from gainful employment during her fellowship.
3. Supriya Routh hereby commits herself to inform the academic coordinator of the project Rechtskulturen immediately if
- the research project is interrupted, changed, finished earlier than planned, or completely abandoned;
 - she is remunerated by a third party for her academic work or if she or – with her consent – a third party benefits financially from the sponsored project;
 - she is granted a fellowship by a third party;
 - changes occur in her personal or professional situation.
4. Supriya Routh hereby notes and acknowledges that
- in case of absences of less than two weeks, the fellow is expected to give prior notification to the academic coordinator of Rechtskulturen;
absences which are longer than 14 days require the prior consent of the academic coordinator of the program Rechtskulturen. Fellows are not entitled to receive a full monthly stipend if they are absent from Berlin for more than 14 days continuously or more than 30 days in total. Rechtskulturen reserves the right to make cuts in the fellowship payment; at the outset of the research stay in Berlin – i.e. during the first month – fellows are only entitled to their first full stipend when arriving by the 15th of the month or on the following working day. Fellows who arrive after this date are not entitled to any payment for the respective month. In the concluding month fellows are expected to be present at least until the 15th of the month or the preceding working day. Fellows leaving Berlin before that date are not entitled to receive a stipend for that month.
Participation in academic conferences, research trips, and archival or library visits that are essential for carrying out the project do not count as absences if they do not exceed one week (continuous) or 14 days (in total over the period of the fellowship);
 - any personal income exceeding € 1,800 per annum must be declared and can be deducted from the fellowship;
 - any income earned by the fellow's partner exceeding € 400 per month must be declared and automatically disqualifies the fellow for the family allowance;

- d. additional social benefits for children or members of the family with disabilities are not included in the stipend and must be applied for separately to the Berlin authorities; the office of the Forum will help to apply for the governmental children's allowance (currently € 184 per child per month during the stay in Berlin) and/or allowances for persons with disabilities, if applicable.
- e. it is the fellow's own responsibility to arrange for adequate personal insurance. If the fellow is privately insured, she will clarify with her insurance company whether the coverage extends to Germany or if supplementary insurance will be required. If the fellow's insurance provides sufficient coverage during her stay in Berlin, she will provide a statement issued by her insurance company to certify the said coverage. The Ausländerbehörde (Foreigners' Registration Office) may require documentation of the fellow's health insurance. If the fellow does not have health insurance adequately covering her stay in Germany, Rechtskulturen will provide health insurance for the fellow and her accompanying partner and/or children and cover all necessary costs. The insurance will be arranged by the office of the Forum Transregionale Studien prior to the fellow's arrival through MAWISTA Health Insurance (tariff "Mawista Science") and also includes insurance for personal liability. The coverage provided by Mawista does NOT include, inter alia, coverage of costs resulting from pre-existing illnesses or preventive examinations (for further details and the insurance conditions, see: www.mawista.com);
- f. finding accommodation during the fellow's stay in Berlin and kindergartens or schools for accompanying children is the fellow's own responsibility. Rechtskulturen may offer assistance in finding appropriate accommodation and may assist with other practical arrangements within the limits of its capacities;
- g. the stipends, including the aforementioned additional allowances, are exempt from social security legislation and taxes;

5. Rechtskulturen: Confrontations Beyond Comparison reserves the right

- a. to take into account contributions by a third party for maintenance or equipment insofar as they are related to the sponsored research project;
- b. to demand repayment of the stipend plus appropriate interest or an appropriate share in any financial yields directly resulting from the sponsored research project if any income is achieved through the project;
- c. to alter or cancel the grant if the fellowship holder fails to fulfill the conditions stipulated above;
- d. to alter or cancel the grant if the fellowship holder has not received her doctorate prior to the beginning of the scholarship;
- e. to withdraw or alter the fellowship-offer if the funding institution of the fellowship program decides to alter or cancel its support.
