NOTIFICATION: Regarding Delhi High Court order and updated counselling calendar

We wish to inform you that the single bench of Hon'ble Delhi High Court had issued an order directing the Consortium to revisit the Merit List published on December 7, 2024. In response, we filed an appeal in division bench of Delhi HC, however division bench didn't intervene the single judge bench order. We are approaching the SC for appropriate relief against this order at the earliest available date due to vacation.

We understand that this development may result in some delay in the scheduled counselling process, and we assure you that the Consortium is committed to ensuring transparency and fairness in the process. Consequently, the release of the first admission list for NLUs, originally scheduled for December 26, will be delayed and there on the counselling process. The fresh calendar to be announced after our SC appeal process and expected relief.

We kindly request your patience as we work diligently to address this matter. Rest assured, all significant updates will be shared through our official channels to keep you informed.

Thank you for your understanding and continued trust in the Consortium.
